A Plastic Free Dream

Recently the government said that they would get rid of all unnecessary plastics by the year 2042. Thankfully people are becoming aware of the terrible impact plastic is having on our beautiful environment. For example: McDonalds have recently brought out new paper straws. Although it feels like this tiny step will not make a difference, if more and more restaurants, cafes and shops follow this example we can get rid of plastic!

The SJB Play Times is setting a challenge for it's readers: How long can you go without plastic? This challenge may sound easy but trying to find plastic-free shops is harder than it seems. Good luck!

Avengers Infinity War

Recently I went to see the new Marvel film: Avengers Infinity War. The film (in my opinion) was the best Marvel film yet. Lots of characters starred in the film such as Iron Man, Captain America, Thor, Star Lord , Black Panther, Gamora, Spider Man and Doctor Strange. The plot of the film is Thanos (the villain in the film) is trying to get 6 Infinity stones. They are: The space stone, power stone, soul stone, reality stone, the time stone and the mind stone (currently resting in Vision`s forehead). So once again it`s up to the Avengers, Guardians of the Galaxy, Doctor Strange, Spider Man, Black Panther and the Wakandian forces to stop him. But, this is the hardest challenge the universe full of villains has to offer. My favourites were Hulk (who faced his best battle against Thanos), Thor, Spider Man, Iron Man, Black Panther, Rocket Raccoon, Gamora, Doctor Strange and Star Lord. If they win they`ll win but if they lose well they`ll do that together too. If Thanos gets all of the Infinity Stones he can destroy half of humanity with the snap of his fingers. The fate of the universe rests upon our heroes shoulders.

Answer: Lunch and dinner

The Real True Dulcie Campbell

I really enjoyed this book. It is about a little girl called Dulcie Campbell (the exact name of one of our teachers) who knows she is really a princess. The woman who calls herself mother is not a relation. The man with whiskers on his cheeks is not her father. The boy who steals her toys is DEFINITELY not her brother. So, one day, Dulcie runs away to wait for her true family. Sitting in a barn she reads her book of princesses to pass the time but she discovers that not all princesses have a perfect life. Do they really have to kiss frogs? Dulcie realises that she doesn't want to be a princess anymore what she really wants is to go home and hug her real true family.

The Adventures of Millie, Stich and Bert

Following their last adventure (the spider fiasco) Stich and Bert have been a lot wariier about falling through the ground into the underworld.

They were walking through the deadly dangerous forest (Bert thought it sounded like a good place for a picnic) when they heard a sharp wailing noise coming from a large log. Quickly, they scampered towards it, dropping their food and blanket. They had to cross a meandering river full of tangled up reeds and piranhas. "Maybe they call this place the deadly dangerous forest for a reason," mused Bert. Stich sighed theatrically. "How are we going to get across anyway?" asked Stich. Bert's eyes swung across to some very precarious looking rocks spread out in a thin line across the river. "Oh no" said Stich...

Precisely 5 minutes later they were wobbling across the rocks towards the wailing voice. Once the daring duo had crossed they discovered it was coming from a hollow log. Taking a deep breath, they peered cautiously inside. A frightened voice said, "My name is Milly. Thank you for rescuing me."

Summer Reading Challenge 2018

Have you heard of this challenge at the local library? It is to try and take out and finish 6 books in the summer holidays. If you complete it you will not only win a medal and certificate but £250 pounds worth of books for your school as well. However you can't do it alone. You can only win the books if the most people from your school COMPLETE the challenge. Also don't just take out the books first ask a member of staff from the library if sign up.

This years reading challenge has a theme. As we are celebrating 80 years of The Beano it's time to say hello to Dennis and his friends!

I know this has been a short article so, if you need it, you can find out more on mischief-makers.org.uk

A once in a lifetime trip

Last week, 27 year 6's went to London on a 3-day trip. Here is a summery of what happened.

On Friday afternoon, we got off the bus and went to the Houses Of Parliament. In my opinion, it wasn't the best part of the trip. We then went to the Rainforest café. It was a very BIG contrast from our last location but very good.

After a delightful meal out with friends, we then went to see Aladdin. The genie had to be a favourite for us all as many people were cheering and clapping.

After that, 27 very tired year 6's arrived at the hostel and went to sleep....or did they? A few of us had sneaky sweets and snacks leftover from the theatre and from our suitcases.

On Saturday, after a hearty breakfast, it was non-stop action in bustling London! Firstly, we went to the natural history museum to see dinosaurs, animals and even an earthquake experience that really happened in Japan! Afterwards, we went to the National Gallery...

...to see famous paintings. We went on a relaxing river cruise and saw The Shard and Tower Bridge. A huge highlight of the day had to be none other than The London Eye! We all dabbled at the top!

On Sunday, we were whizzed off into the wizarding world with Harry Potter.

We then went home, feeling tired but excited, excited about telling our parents about what an amazing time they'd had!
