Dear Parent/Carers

In true SJB style, there has been so much going on this week.

Our Year 6 mini police have once again been very busy. On Monday they hosted the High Sheriff of Cumbria, Marcia Reid Fotheringham, and her husband Jim, who just so happens to be an expert climber who has climbed with Chris Bonnington. Their stories and advice were very inspiring. Mrs Fotheringham is from New York and so Year 6 also enjoyed hearing about the challenges of adapting to life in Cumbria. The mini police also hosted our friends from Sandside Lodge on Thursday. It was lovely to meet a past pupil and to reciprocate Sandside's hospitality to us.

Year 3 and 4 have been inspired by a local storyteller and are working towards their performances at the Coronation Hall next month.

Year 3 had a very unusual visitor in their classroom yesterday – they found out first-hand about owls!

And of course the sport continues. We celebrated sporting values on Wednesday following KS2 Sports Day and children have been out playing cricket and orienteering.

Mrs H Pearson, Headteacher
