SIR JOHN BARROW SCHOOL

HEADTEACHER'S UPDATE

January 2017

We have had a good start to 2017. The children are working hard in school and enjoying the many different experiences on offer to them. I have enjoyed listening to many children around school enthusing about the various learning activities, ranging from exploring rocks, a Viking visit, sporting challenges, scientific investigations, cookery ... I could go on. In assembly we have been talking about our SJB values and have been reminded that 'Actions Speak Louder than Words'. Well done SJB, keep up the good work, the positive attitude and the desire to support each other, just as our mission statement says....

Succeeding , enJoying and Belonging

Christmas Jumper Day

We raised £119 for Save the Children. Thank you for your contributions

Please see the school blog via the school website: www.sjbarrow.cumbria.sch.uk to keep up to date with school activities.

School Communications – Please remember we will cease to use 'Parentmail' on 31st January. On 1st February we will send a test email and text message from Scholarpack Communications. If you don't receive this, please email up to date contact details to: admin@sjbarrow.cumbria.sch.uk Thank you.

E- cigarettes

Please note that Sir John Barrow School has a no smoking policy across the school site. This includes the smoking of e-cigarettes. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

1 mile challenge

We are encouraging staff and children to take part in the one mile challenge this half term, before the school day begins. Our aim is to work towards or achieve a mile a day, beating our personal best as our fitness improves. One mile is 8 laps around the playground. The more the merrier, we hope you will join in. Staff are on the playground for 8.35am.

Valentines Disco - PTA

The PTA is organising a Valentines Disco on Thursday 17th February. More details to follow soon.
