HEADTEACHER'S NOTES

We hope you enjoyed our Christmas Fayre last week. A huge thank you to the PTA for organising such a great event and raising a fabulous £809.58. It was wonderful to see the Parish Church full on Wednesday night for our Key Stage 2 Christmas Celebration. Thank you to all who were able to attend and well done to all of our junior children for their excellent performance of 'A Christmas Carol'. The children performed with such enthusiasm and confidence, it was a delight to watch. Please keep an eye on the blog for future updates.

*Miss Helen Pemberton,
Headteacher*

SNIPPETS

If you have any old toys at home that are in good condition and you no longer require them, our Reception and Nursery class will be happy to have them.

Well done to our Year 3,4,5 and 6 athletes. We came in 3rd position in the Furness finals! The children were fantastic at the javelin and showed outstanding skills with jumping and running.

Mrs Fletcher will be running Music Festival Club on Tuesdays after school in January. This was the best fit for most of the children. If you cannot make this rehearsal, please come and see Mrs Fletcher as soon as possible.

Little Reminder: Its Christmas Jumper Day on Friday 15th December. Donations for Save the Children welcome.
