SIR JOHN BARROW SCHOOL

WEEKLY SNIPPETS

HEADTEACHER'S NOTES

Friday 23rd February 2018

What a busy week at SJB this week. Most of our Yr5 children and several from Yr6 took part in Cyclewise. Luckily we had great sunshine each day for the children to ride their bikes! We also had a schools gymnastics competition. We are pleased to say that we have got through to the finals. Please visit the blog for information and to see the children participating.

KS1 Ulverston Voices took part on Wednesday evening at the Coronation Hall. Please see the blog for photographs of the children who took part. Well done to all children who participated.

Ulverston Rotary Club are hosting a Community Beach Clean. Meet Saturday 10th March at the Old Mill 10am. All parents and children are welcome to attend (10am – 1pm). All equipment and refreshments will be provided by the Rotary Club. Children must be supervised by an adult at all times.

Book week / Music Festival events- please see link to our website below for further information:

SNIPPETS

Please can you check your children's PE pumps still fit as many have had a recent growth spurt. Please also check names in your child's uniforms as many have washed out.

There have also been a few episodes of head lice reported. Please check your child's hair and treat accordingly if necessary.

PTA 100 Club (February 2018) – Mrs Claire Smith (mum of Iona Year 5) is the lucky winner this month. Congratulations!
