SIR JOHN BARROW SCHOOL WEEKLY SNIPPETS

HEADTEACHER'S NOTES

Friday 8th June

It was fabulous seeing the children enjoying the M&M performance of 'The Little Princess'. I would personally like to thank the PTA for agreeing to part-subsidise this. These things do not come cheap - the total cost is £825.00. We have received £262.50 (online and cash payments) from parents. Sadly this equates to less than 50% of the school population. If we do not receive sufficient £2.50 voluntary contributions we will not be able to invite M&M Productions into SJB next year.

As expected the 2nd half of the summer term has been action packed already. Hats off to our fantastic KS2 girls and boys Kwik Cricket teams who played superbly this week and have reached the County finals. Mr Maher is extremely proud of every single one of them. Take a look at our Blog for photos.

The Performing Arts Club is extremely busy rehearsing for our end of term production 'Joseph'. If you would like to sponsor the Programme, please call into the office or email

Thank you,
Miss Helen Pemberton,
Headteacher

SNIPPETS

Save the Children are now selling second hand school uniforms.

If you have any good quality school uniforms that your child no longer requires, please take any unwanted uniform items to Save The Children charity shop in Ulverston town centre.

Uniform Policy – just a little reminder children still need to wear dark shoes and shorts, even though it's summer in line with our uniform policy.

School uniform is compulsory and consists of:

Dark blue sweatshirt or cardigan with SJB logo

White polo shirt with or without the SJB logo

Dark blue, grey or black trousers/skirt

Suitable plain black footwear

Pale blue checked dress or dark blue, grey or black tailored shorts in summer
