Y1

Health and wellbeing

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- about change and loss and the associated feelings (including moving home, losing toys, pets or friends)
- the importance of and how to maintain personal hygiene
- how some diseases are spread and can be controlled and the responsibilities they have for their own health and that of others
- about the process of growing from young to old and how people's needs change
- about growing and changing and new opportunities and responsibilities that increasing independence may bring

Living in the wider world

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- that people and other living things have needs and that they have responsibilities to meet them (including being able to take turns, share and understand the need to return things that have been borrowed).
- that they belong to various groups and communities such as family and school.

Relationships

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- to share their opinions on things that matter to them and explain their views through discussions with one other person and the whole class
- to listen to other people and play and work cooperatively (including strategies to resolve simple arguments through negotiation)
- to offer constructive support and feedback to others
- to identify and respect the differences and similarities between people
- to identify their special people (family, friends, carers), what makes them special and how special people should care for one another

Y2

Health and wellbeing

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- the names for the main parts of the body (including external genitalia) the similarities and differences between boys and girls
- that household products, including medicines, can be harmful if not used properly
- rules for and ways of keeping physically and emotionally safe (including road safety, safety in the environment, safety online, the responsible use of ICT, the difference between secrets and surprises and understanding not to keep adults' secrets)
- about people who look after them, their family networks, who to go to if they are worried and how to attract their attention, ways that pupils can help these people to look after them
- to recognise that they share a responsibility for keeping themselves and others safe, when to say, 'yes', 'no', 'I'll ask' and 'I'll tell'

Living in the wider world

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- what improves and harms their local, natural and built environments and about some of the ways people look after them.
- that money comes from different sources and can be used for different purposes, including the concepts of spending and saving.
- about the role money plays in their lives including how to manage their money, keep it safe, choices about spending money and what influences those choices.

Relationships

Pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- to judge what kind of physical contact is acceptable, comfortable, unacceptable and uncomfortable and how to respond (including who to tell and how to tell them)
- that people's bodies and feelings can be hurt (including what makes them feel comfortable and uncomfortable)
- to recognise when people are being unkind either to them or others, how to respond, who to tell and what to say
- that there are different types of teasing and bullying, that these are wrong and unacceptable
- how to resist teasing or bullying, if they experience or witness it, whom to go to and how to get help

Y3

Health and wellbeing

Building on Key Stage 1, pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- what positively and negatively affects their physical, mental and emotional health (including the media)
- how to make informed choices (including recognising that choices can have positive, neutral and negative consequences) and to begin to understand the concept of a 'balanced lifestyle'
- to recognise opportunities to make their own choices about food, what might influence their choices and the benefits of eating a balanced diet
- to reflect on and celebrate their achievements, identify their strengths, areas for improvement, set high aspirations and goals
- to deepen their understanding of good and not so good feelings, to extend their vocabulary to enable them to explain both the range and intensity of their feelings to others
- to recognise that they may experience conflicting emotions and when they might need to listen to their emotions or overcome them

Living in the wider world

Building on Key Stage 1, pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- to research, discuss and debate topical issues, problems and events concerning health and wellbeing and offer their recommendations to appropriate people
- why and how rules and laws that protect themselves and others are made and enforced, why different rules are needed in different situations and how to take part in making and changing rules
- to realise the consequences of anti-social and aggressive behaviours such as bullying and discrimination on individuals and communities

Relationships

Building on Key Stage 1, pupils should have the opportunity to learn:

- to recognize and respond appropriately to a wider range of feelings in others
- to recognise what constitutes a positive, healthy relationship and develop the skills to form and maintain positive and healthy relationships
- to recognise ways in which a relationship can be unhealthy and who to talk to if they need support.

Y4

Health and wellbeing

- to differentiate between the terms, 'risk', 'danger' and 'hazard'
- to deepen their understanding of risk by recognising, predicting and assessing risks in different situations and deciding how to manage them responsibly (including sensible road use and risks in their local environment) and to use this as an opportunity to build resilience
- to recognise their increasing independence brings increased responsibility to keep themselves and others safe
- that bacteria and viruses can affect health and that following simple routines can reduce their spread
- that pressure to behave in an unacceptable, unhealthy or risky way can come from a variety of sources, including people they know and the media
- to recognise when and how to ask for help and use basic techniques for resisting pressure to do something dangerous, unhealthy, that makes them uncomfortable, anxious or that they believe to be wrong
- how their body will change as they approach and move through puberty

Living in the wider world

- that there are different kinds of responsibilities, rights and duties at home, at school, in the community and towards the environment
- to resolve differences by looking at alternatives, seeing and respecting others' points of view, making decisions and explaining choices
- what being part of a community means, and about the varied institutions that support communities locally and nationally
- to recognise the role of voluntary, community and pressure groups, especially in relation to health and wellbeing

Relationships

- to be aware of different types of relationship, including those between friends and families, civil partnerships and marriage
- that their actions affect themselves and others
- to judge what kind of physical contact is acceptable or unacceptable and how to respond
- the concept of 'keeping something confidential or secret', when we should or should not agree to this and when it is right to 'break a confidence' or 'share a secret'

Y5

Health and wellbeing

- school rules about health and safety, basic emergency aid procedures, where and how to get help
- what is meant by the term 'habit' and why habits can be hard to change
- which, why and how, commonly available substances and drugs (including alcohol and tobacco) could damage their immediate and future health and safety, that some are legal, some are restricted and some are illegal to own, use and supply to others
- how their body will change as they approach and move through puberty
- to recognise how images in the media do not always reflect reality and can affect how people feel about themselves

Living in the wider world

- to appreciate the range of national, regional, religious and ethnic identities in the United Kingdom
- to think about the lives of people living in other places, and people with different values and customs
- about the role money plays in their own and others' lives, including how to manage their money and about being a critical consumer
- to develop an initial understanding of the concepts of 'interest', 'loan', 'debt', and 'tax' (e.g. their contribution to society through the payment of VAT)

Relationships

- to listen and respond respectfully to a wide range of people, to feel confident to raise their own concerns, to recognise and care about other people's feelings and to try to see, respect and if necessary constructively challenge their points of view
- to work collaboratively towards shared goals
- to develop strategies to resolve disputes and conflict through negotiation and appropriate compromise and to give rich and constructive feedback and support to benefit others as well as themselves
- that differences and similarities between people arise from a number of factors, including family, cultural, ethnic, racial and religious diversity, age, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, and disability (see 'protected characteristics' in the Equality Act 2010)

Y6

Health and wellbeing

- about change, including transitions (between Key Stages and schools), loss, separation, divorce and bereavement
- about human reproduction
- strategies for keeping physically and emotionally safe including road safety, safety in the environment and safety online (including social media, the responsible use of ICT and mobile phones)
- the importance of protecting personal information, including passwords, addresses and images
- about people who are responsible for helping them stay healthy and safe and ways that they can help these people

Living in the wider world

- that resources can be allocated in different ways and that these economic choices affect individuals, communities and the sustainability of the environment
- about enterprise and the skills that make someone 'enterprising'
- to explore and critique how the media present information

Relationships

- to realise the nature and consequences of discrimination, teasing, bullying and aggressive behaviours (including cyber bullying, use of prejudice-based language, how to respond and ask for help)
- to recognise and manage 'dares'
- to recognise and challenge stereotypes
