

WEEKLY SNIPPETS

Tuesday 23rd February 2021

Dear Parent/Carers,

Welcome back. We hope you all had a relaxing and enjoyable half term.

This is an early snippets following yesterday's announcement by the Prime Minister. We are looking forward to welcoming all our children back into school on March 8th. We are looking at the latest guidance and will be corresponding with you over the next few weeks.

Thank you to everyone who was able to complete the remote learning questionnaire. Your feedback was very encouraging. It is also very helpful and useful as we reflect on our practice. There is still time to complete the survey if you wish to do so. The survey will close at noon on Thursday 25th February 2021.

Thank you once again for working with us so closely over this difficult period. We are all looking forward to returning to some normality from March 8th. We are also hoping we can build on the closer links established over recent days. We hope you will continue to work with us to help your children thrive at SJB. Your input into your children's education makes such a difference.

On a more practical note, next week is World Book week. We have decided to postpone world book week to the following week when we return to school. We decided it's not as much fun dressing up as a Book character at home as at school!!!! Book week is about sharing a love of books and reading. It will look a bit different this year in school but it will be fun. Watch this space. The children might want to start considering their costumes now :)

Best wishes
Mrs Pearson and the SJB Team
